Interactive Sessions- Doroob- Individuals

A service provided by Human Resources Development Fund which aims at developing and raising the skills of the national workforce by providing training content in a specific field by a specialist through live streaming as well as the attendance of various beneficiaries in order to spread knowledge or enhance a specific skill. The content presented in the live streaming is recorded, then uploaded to the e-training program platform "Doroob" for viewing it later.

Steps of enrollment in the interactive sessions

From home screen, click "Sessions".

The screenshot displays the website's interface. At the top, a dark blue navigation bar contains links: Homepage, E-training program, Verify, Frequent Questions, Contact us, and User Manual. Below this, a secondary navigation bar features 'Training' with a dropdown menu where 'Sessions' is highlighted with an orange box. Other menu items include Training Courses, Training Tracks, Partners Courses, and Supported Programs. A user profile 'KHALID' is visible on the right. The main content area has a white banner with the text: 'Several training courses In the e-training program (Doroob)- Establishments Service To develop the skills of establishments employees'. A green button below reads 'Enroll your establishments now.'. Below the banner is a large section titled 'E-training program platform' with a search bar asking 'What do you want to learn?'. A green bar at the bottom of the main section displays statistics: '1.8 million beneficiaries' (with a people icon), '10 million training hours' (with a gear icon), and '16.2 million complementary training program' (with a document icon). The final section, 'Training sessions', is titled and underlined, and contains four cards, each with an icon of a person on a screen and the text 'Webinars- Interactive sessions':

- Intellectual property and emerging technologies
- Protection of intellectual property in the digital community
- Entrepreneurship in the electronic games market
- Develop a plan for organizing fairs and conferences
